DuPAGE MAYORS AND MANAGERS CONFERENCE

an association of municipalities representing over 1,000,000 people

ABOUT DMMC

Founded in 1962, the DuPage Mayors and Managers Conference is a council of 33 municipal governments in DuPage County, representing over 1,000,000 people. A coalition of cities and villages, the Conference works to voice municipal concerns on local, regional, state, and national issues. It also serves its members and the region by fostering intergovernmental cooperation. The Conference is a not-for-profit organization supported by membership dues and grants.

DMMC serves its members and the region by:

- Promoting excellence in municipal government;
- Fostering intergovernmental cooperation;
- Providing research, technical assistance, training, and leadership development opportunities to members;
- Voicing municipal concerns on local, regional, state, and national issues in a variety of forums; and
- Evaluating the impact of pending state and federal legislation on municipalities.

ABOUT CORPORATE PARTNERS

The DuPage Mayors and Managers Conference Corporate Partners Program provides an opportunity for participation by organizations that share a common commitment to the well-being of DuPage County municipalities. Corporate Partners gain high visibility among member communities through such means as meetings, workshops, publications, annual events, and sponsorship opportunities. Membership is for one year starting from date of acceptance. Applications are accepted throughout the year.

DMMC seeks Corporate Partners that:

- Demonstrate a track record as a good corporate citizen;
- Support and offer expertise in areas that will contribute to DMMC's overall mission;
- Provide top-level corporate involvement in specific substantive programs that meet mutual needs and further the mission of both the Corporate Partners and DMMC; and
- Do not pursue a partisan political agenda while participating in DMMC meetings and events.
