Municipal Conference Announces Leaders for 2007-2008

The DuPage Mayors and Managers Conference inducted Wood Dale Mayor, Kenneth Johnson as its President at the 45th Annual Dinner and Recognition Ceremony on May 18, 2007. The Conference, founded in 1962, is a council of 34 municipal governments in DuPage County, Illinois.

In addition to Mayor Johnson, Lisle Mayor Joseph Broda was inducted as Vice-President and Burr Ridge Village Administrator Steven Stricker was inducted as Secretary/Treasurer. The three were elected by their peers at the Conference's April 23, 2007 Business Meeting held in Springfield, Illinois. Their one-year terms begin on June 1, 2007.

As President, Johnson is charged with appointing Conference members to serve as Directors and Deputy Directors to the Conference's eight committees. These individuals along with the three Officers, liaisons to the Metropolitan Mayors Caucus Executive Board, and three at-large representatives, comprise the Conference's Board of Directors.
